JAP FROLIC ENDED IN TRAGIC DEATH

JAPANESE FELL IN FRONT OF FLAT CAR WHILE ACCOMMODAT-ING HIS COUNTRYMAN.

A Japanese employed at the Kakaia sugar company plantation on Kaula met a peculiar death at Maui on November 2. The Jap in company with others of his countrymen, was celebrating the birthday of the Emperor.
 The Jap was more or less feeling in exuberant spirits. He was riding a horse. Some Japs wanted to go to one of the other camps on the plantation and as they could not get the locomotive to haul the flat cars to the desired place, the Jap on horseback conceived the brilliant idea of having his horse drag them, a la canal boat.

He hitched a lariat on to the front of the car and made the other end of the rope fast to the pommel of his saddle and then started the horse. In a short time the car gained momentum and went bowling along at a rapid rate, the horse having to go on a run to keep ahead of the car. Dozens of Japs were on the car and they enjoyed the novel sport. The Jap on the horse enjoyed the sport too, until the girthe of the saddle broke and then the phre-nure trip was turned into a tragedy, for the Jap fell on the truck in front of the car. The wheel struck him in the head, inflicting an injury from which he died, within an hour.

STRUCK FOR HIGHER WAGES

NATIVES WORKING ON KAULAI BRIDGE WANT DOLLAR AND HALF A DAY.

The Garden Island says: All of the native workmen employed by the Pinane Brothers on the Kaula Concrete Steel Bridge, for which they have the contract, have struck for higher wages.
 They walked out of the works on Tuesday. Before they had been getting a dollar a day but they concluded the pay too small, and demanded a dollar and a half a day. The contractors refused, and the natives refuse to work.
 It does not seem to this paper that a dollar and a half a day is too much pay for this work. Our sympathy is with the natives.

DOLE SENTENCES TWO "STILL" JAPS

M. Jo and Kuboyawa, the two Japanese recently convicted in Judge Dole's court of running an illicit still came up for sentence. M. Jo, who pleaded guilty to the charge, was fined $100 with a penalty of $500 and two months imprisonment on the first count, and a penalty of $500 with six months imprisonment was imposed on the second count. The other prisoner, Kuboyawa, who entered a plea of not guilty was fined $100 with a penalty of $500 and a month's imprisonment on the first count and a penalty of $50 with six months imprisonment was imposed on the second count.

THE BIRTHDAY OF THE KING

Today being the sixty third anniversary of the birth of King Edward the Seventh of Great Britain and Ireland, Emperor of India the band of the Territory of Hawaii under Captain Berger, proceeded to the British consulate and rendered a number of British airs. The courtesy was tendered at the instance of Governor Carter. The program closed with a fine rendition of the British national anthem "God Save the King."

THE FORMER HIGH SHERIFF IN COURT

Former High Sheriff A. M. Brown made his first appearance in the police court this morning as a private practitioner. He appeared to defend a Jap named Tateishi. The Jap was first charged with having committed an assault on another Jap with a knife, by stabbing the other Jap in the head. This charge was nolle prossed however, and a second charge of assault and battery made. Brown for the defence, was able to prove that the scuffle between the two Japanese in which the complainant had received the wound had been a justifiable one on the part of Tateishi, as the latter was ejecting the complainant from Tateishi's house.

NO OFFICIAL RETURNS

While the returns of the election are beyond any possible question correct as stated in different columns of the Star, the official returns will not be morning at the office of the Secretary of the Territory the bags containing the ballots as cast and the remaining sup-ing with commendable promptness but up to noon neither the Fifth nor the Fourth was complete. The records will not be opened until all are in and the official totaling will then be made.

CARTER ON THE BIG VICTORY

THE GOVERNOR IS PLEASED AND ALSO SURPRISED AT EXTENT OF THE TRIUMPH.

"After all there is very little to say about yesterday's results except that I am extremely pleased," remarked Governor Carter this morning. "I anticipated a complete Republican victory on the mainland, of course, but I had no idea of the clean sweep that was recorded. As to our home politics I am naturally glad that the policy of the administration should have received so encouraging an endorsement. Beyond this there is nothing to say, the government will go ahead as usual doing the best it can in the line of what it believes to be the best interests of the Territory of Hawaii."
